Old Business:	Baltic Barrel has some off flavors. Steve is going kill the yeast with sulfide. Steve will send an email for people to sample. Monthly beer swap will happen after each competition. First one will be in April. Bring what you want to trade. Reminders will go out after each contest. Greg will take April's meeting, Bob will take May, we still need someone for November. T-shirts – Steve hasn't got the pricing yet. Luke brought the example t-shirt. Everyone likes the shirt, but the logo needs to be a bit bigger on the back if possible. Pump – Mike needs to finish this. Transfer Lambic – Luke and Thia will send out dates to transfer
New Business:	If we are going to do another barrel project we need to plan for the life of the barrel. I.E. plan 3 beers and brew at least the first 2 before we have the barrel. We will plan the timeframe ahead of time. We need to decide the barrel we want. Scott will take the lead on the type of barrel. He will send out a survey on what type of barrel we want. Then the next steps. Partners has a tapping of Dinner Thursday the 21st. You must go there to buy tickets. Only 40 tickets available and you're guaranteed a pour if you have a ticket. Julio's is having a mass blind IPA tasting on March 31st. You need to buy tickets. This is a competition. Ryan found a box of medals. We don't need them if there are any brew clubs that may need them we could offload the for a discount. Foamstock is the weekend of the 14th. Sharon and Mike will work with Mark to sending out the official invite.
